HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS' USE AND HIGH SCHOOL REFERENCE LIBRARIES,

BY THE

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT OF ONTARIO.

Section I.

ENGLISH.

DICTIONARIES, ETC.

Concise Imperial. Cloth. $1.25; half Morocco, $2.50. Blackie & Son; The Copp, Clark Co.

For many years the standard in the High Schools.

Chambers's Twentieth Century Dictionary (1901.) Pronouncing, Explanatory, Etymological. 1,207 pp. Cloth, $1.00; half Morocco, $2.50. W. R. Chambers; W. J. Gage & Co.

An excellent work at a very low price. Contains more matter than the Concise Imperial and is equally reliable.

The Imperial or Chambers's should be adopted as the standard of pronunciation and spelling, and a copy of either or of both should be on every teacher's school desk.

Standard Dictionary of the English Language. The Funk & Wagnalls Co. Sold by subscription. In 2 vols. half Russia, $18.00; full Russia, $22.00; full Morocco, $26.00. In one vol. half Russia, $15.00; full Russia, $18.00; full Morocco, $22.00.

An exhaustive and valuable work. One of the most useful encyclopædic dictionaries of moderate size and cost.

Webster's International Dictionary. New Edition (1901), thoroughly revised. In different bindings at prices varying from $10.00 to $18.00. G. & C. Merriam & Co., Springfield, Mass.

This also is a very valuable work of reference. The appendix contains a dictionary of Scotch words and phrases. Communications should be addressed to the publishers, but the book will be sent from Toronto.

Century Dictionary and Cyclopædia and Atlas. 10 vols. The Century Co., New York.

Half Morocco $70.00, payable $3.00 per month

3/4 Full	"	80.00,	"	4.00	"
		100.00,	"	5.00	"

This edition is the latest, and was thoroughly revised in 1900. Special terms may be ascertained on application to the publishers.

This is an extremely valuable work and should be procured by every High School Board that can afford the expense. The first eight volumes are a combination of dictionary and cyclopædia, and in them every word in the English language is treated, first from a dictionary standpoint and then as an encyclopædic subject. In Volume IX, which is entirely devoted to proper names and contains over 50,000 titles, the pronunciation of place-names, names of people, etc., is given. In the same volume are the biographies of living persons, descriptions of famous places, works of art, noted yachts, horses, battles, etc., etc. This volume may be purchased separately at $15. The Tenth Volume contains all the maps and the geographical index with its quarter of a million titles. The maps are remarkably complete.

New English Dictionary on Historical Principles: founded mainly on the materials collected by the Philological Society. Imperial 4to. Edited by J. A. H. MURRAY, LL.D., etc. Each vol. half Morocco, £2 12s. 6d. Vols. I.-VI.—A.-L. Clarendon Press.

Very valuable for English scholars, but too advanced and too expensive for most High Schools. The English Dialect Dictionary, edited by WRIGHT, and issued in parts at 15s. each, is of the same character.

Chamber's Encyclopædia. New edition of 1900. Rewritten and enlarged by American and English editors. International in character. Based upon the most recent census returns; and corrections and additions made up to the day of printing. 10 vols. Imperial 8vo. Bound in Morocco, £7 10s. 0d.; Cloth, $2.50 a volume; half bound Morocco, $3.50. J. B. Lippincott & Co.

A cheap and excellent encyclopædia for High Schools. Articles concise and suitable for pupils' use. The articles in the larger encyclopædias—Appleton's and the Britannica—are too advanced for most High School pupils. If one of them is provided, it should be in addition to Chamber's.

Universal Cyclopædia. New and enlarged Edition. Complete in 12 vols. Sold by subscription. D. Appleton & Co.; Geo. N. Morang & Co.

A good work, with articles of the same character as those in Chambers's.

NATURE STUDY TEXTS FOR TEACHERS.

Cornell Nature Study Leaflets. W. F. Humphrey, Geneva, N. Y. For a number of years the State of New York has made an annual appropriation for University Extension of Agriculture to be administered by the College of Agriculture of Cornell University. One of the means employed towards such an end has been to lead the children of the public Schools to know more about the common but interesting things pertaining to rural life. The College of Agriculture has prepared a number of Leaflets and Quarterlies, as follows:

Teacher's Leaflets in Nature Study. 13 published. Single copy 5c. 13 nos. 50c.

Cornell Nature Study, quarterly. 9 nos.
Single copy 7c. 9 nos. 60c.

Junior Naturalists' Monthly. An illustrated publication. 25c. a year.

These, like most of the other Nature Study productions, are more suited for Public than for High Schools. For the latter they are especially valuable as suggesting modern methods of study.
